(both residents are members). An accessory dwelling unit (ADU) is considered a separate residence.

Individual Supporting Membership($350/year): A resident who is 55 years of Age or older. While we hope most couples will choose to join as a Household, in some cases, only one member of a couple may wish to become a supporting member (option available only at the time of initiating a membership or renewing a current membership). If this type of membership is selected, the non-member person in the couple may attend only those IAH events that are open to all I'On neighbors.

Non-Residents

I'On at Home has begun to allow for the membership of former residents who do not live in I'On, but continue to have close relationships with I'On.

I'On at Home limits (10) persons of this type of membership. In addition, other non-I'On residents who are not former residents but have close ties to the I'On community may apply for this type of membership.

Annual membership fees help I'On At Home pay for expenses, such as programs and events, the website and other technology, printing, supplies for volunteers and members, telephone, liability insurance for Board members and volunteers, the cost to confirm the credentials of our volunteers and service providers, and for part-time salary costs.

Volunteers also help the IAH organization itself by helping make event flyers, serving on a Board committee, or coordinating a new interest group.

The goals of the I'On At Home Volunteer Program are:

- To support the mission of IAH by providing effective and quality services
- To ensure volunteers have a pleasant and rewarding service experience
- To nurture and build community by developing connections among members and volunteers
- To provide opportunities for new friendships to develop among volunteers and members as they participate in social programs
- To make use of the individual talents, skills, and experiences of volunteers to enhance the services IAH offers its members
- To recognize the gifts offered through the commitment, time and talents shared by volunteers been a great deal of research into some of the problems of aging and one of the biggest is loneliness. All elderly have different needs. Some members want to be involved in many activities while others are more solitary. However, members need to stay "connected" to each other and feel that we continue to grow and stay involved.

The purpose of IAH events is to provide activities for members. Members' interests and preferences will guide event selection and planning, and the majority of these occasions will be for members only. A maximum of 10 events per year may be open to all I'On neighbors. Events selected to be "open" will be those without significant restrictions on the number of attendees. Members-only events may also be opened to all neighbors if there are a number of available spaces a week in advance.

IAH members will be given priority for attendance at events. At members-only events, non-member guests may participate under specific circumstances:

The event host (the activity is taking place at her/his home) may invite a non-member guest(s).

A member may invite a non-resident significant other or a houseguest(s). In these cases, the member should register the guest(s) for that particular event, along with themselves, and include a note in the Comments window of the Registration page. If the event fills to capacity, and members are on a waiting list, the Programs Committee will have the discretion to not allow non-member guests. In this case, the member host of these guests will be contacted.

Here is a list of examples of the types of programs and activities that will be available to IAH members. Program plans will be made in response to members' requests, and activities will be listed on the website calendar as well as being advertised using e-mail, social media, and community calendars (I'On Life, Newsletter, etc).
